OUR WORK: PRIMEFIT MEDICAL

OBJECTIVE

AMMP, LLC, a premier age management medical practice comprised of nutrition, fitness, and health therapies for individuals wanting to proactively enhance their health and reduce the effects of aging, hired Verasolve to create a new name, logo, and tagline for expanding the concept nationally.

WORK

Verasolve conducted in-depth industry research and extensively interviewed current and prospective program members to better understand the motivations of its core audience. Observing that many of the study participants were drawn to the phrase “prime of life,” Verasolve created the name PrimeFit Medical to appeal to those wanting to look and feel their best, regardless of age. To firmly establish the practice as an age management service provider, Verasolve developed the tagline, ‘the edge on aging.’

Verasolve’s designer selected a bold font and incorporated red and black to convey a vibrant, high-end, professional look for the logo. The use of the three hexagons, which echo shapes used in chemistry to represent molecules, reinforced the scientific basis for the three-step program of nutrition, fitness, and prescription therapies.

RESULTS

Verasolve’s strategic and creative solutions have successfully positioned PrimeFit Medical to roll out its age management practice on the national stage.

OBJECTIVE

AffordAScan, an online radiology marketplace that helps patients, independent diagnostic imaging and testing facilities (IDTFs), referring medical providers, and employers compare medical scan pricing and select the best provider for their needs, was looking to grow its brand recognition, build credibility, and generate qualified partnership and investment leads. The company also needed assistance announcing its name change in March 2015.

Verasolve executed a media campaign to create awareness of AffordAScan’s convenient locations nationwide. To generate media buzz, Verasolve positioned the company as the Expedia of healthcare and focused on its ability to deliver patients with high-quality medical scans at an affordable price. When AffordAScan changed its name to ContactMyDoc in 2015, the Verasolve team assembled a “mini media kit” that included a fact sheet and press release to communicate the company’s expanded mission and broader range of services for healthcare providers, patients, and employers.

Verasolve also worked with AffordAScan to revamp its core messaging and draft copy for new marketing collateral. The team performed an in-depth audit of the company’s website and conducted strategic research of competitors, speaking opportunities, awards opportunities, and healthcare venture capital opportunities.

RESULTS

Verasolve’s media efforts helped increase awareness of the company’s locations throughout the U.S., announce its name change to ContactMyDoc, and educate the media on the value of the platform. Coverage was picked up in several media outlets, including Aunt Minnie, Alltop, Blubury, CityBizList, Flying Kite, Medical One, and M*Modal.

With Verasolve’s help, AffordAScan was able to better educate its target markets, generate third-party validation, uncover new partnership and investment opportunities, and effectively communicate its name change and expanded suite of services.
